LATINA Style Business SERIES

LATINA Style Inc., the premier company addressing the needs of the Latina professional and business owner, is proud to announce the cities for the 2018 Business Series. Launched in 1998 in partnership with the Small Business Administration, this interactive business development program, the most successful in the nation, brings together Latina business owners with key corporations and government agencies that provide the goods and services needed by these outstanding entrepreneurs. It also creates business supplier opportunities so these entrepreneurs can expand their businesses and bringing to the next level. Over 36,000 Latina entrepreneurs have participated in the Series since it's inception in 1998.

The Audience:

Participants are Latina business owners seeking to grow their business and Latina professionals interested in starting a business. Each event typically attracts 200 to 250 attendees. Editorial coverage of each event appears in LATINA Style Magazine and will also be posted on www.LATINASTyle.com. LATINA Style Magazine has a distribution of 150,000 with a readership of 600,000. Coverage is also posted on www.LATINASTyle.com for one year, the website receives an average of 200,000 hits a month.

Demographics:

Hispanic-owned businesses are the fastest-growing segment of the business community. Between 1987 and 1992 they grew at a rate of over 76%; the rate of growth for all firms during the same period was only 26%. Revenues for Hispanic-owned businesses for the same time period increased by 134% versus 67% for all firms. According to U.S. Department of Labor, Facts on Working Women, Latinas are the fastest growing small business in the U.S with a phenomenal growth rate of 114% in the last five years. Latinas control 39 percent of the 1.4 million companies owned by women of color in the United States, which generate nearly $147 billion in sales, according to the Center for Business Women's Research. More than one-third (34.9 percent) of all Latino-owned firms are owned by Women.

The Program:

The program emphasis is in creating a solid business foundation for the Latina entrepreneur. Corporate sponsors and partners provide nationally recognized expert panelists to speak about a specific categories of expertise. The program covers a wide-range of topics including: access to capital; strategic sales & marketing strategies; professional, technology, and communications services; corporate & federal procurement opportunities. The program is produced in partnership with LATINA Style Magazine, the most respected media addressing the needs and concerns of the Latina entrepreneur in the Nation.

Presenters have the opportunity to work directly with the audience, clarifying the issues, addressing the problem areas and highlighting the products, services and procurement opportunities their corporation provides. The outcome is a solid set of leads that can be converted into mutually beneficial business relationships. The development and growth of Latina owned businesses not only benefits Latinas but has a positive effect on our economy.

The conference includes an exhibit area with a networking breakfast, panel sessions, Latina Entrepreneur Award luncheon with a nationally recognized keynote speaker and a closing networking reception. Each participant is given a commemorative gift bag which will have the product sponsors items. An excellent opportunity to reach the growing Hispanic market! Reaching over 600,000 readers and 200,000 online visitors LATINA Style Magazine is the primary source of information on Latina entrepreneurs, corporate executives, government leaders, and civic leaders in the country.
